

Consultant / Reda Abdel Moaty graduated from the Faculty of Law, Cairo University in 1982. He earned a Master's degree in Law from Cairo University in 1984, along with having diplomas in Public and Criminal Law. He was appointed as a teaching assistant at the Faculty of Law, Cairo University. In 1983, Consultant Abdel Moaty was appointed in the State Council and held different posts in the judicial hierarchy. He became a Vice President of the State Council in 2003. He worked in several divisions of Legal Consultation Department in the State Council, then in the Administrative Courts, the Courts of Administrative Justice, and finally a Judge in the Supreme Administrative Court. He worked as a Legal Advisor for various entities, including, the Suez Canal University, Alexandria Sanitary Drainage Company, and the Ministry of Youth and Sports. He was a member of disciplinary boards of several Egyptian Universities, including, Cairo, Assiut, Zagazig, Minya, and Mansoura Universities. He worked in Kuwait as a Legal Advisor from 1999 to 2004. He joined the Financial Regulatory Authority (FRA) as a Legal Advisor in 2011. He participated in several committees related to FRA, as a head and a member. Consultant Abdel Moaty participated in preparing and drafting several draft laws and regulations related to insurance and other financial, economic, and investment aspects.