

Mohamed Khalifeh graduated from Saint-Joseph University with a Finance Degree, then pursued a Master degree in Risk Management & Insurance Techniques at Université Paris IX-Dauphine. An expert with 16 years of experience, mainly in Audit, Finance and Risk Management.

Prior to joining Chedid, Mohamed spent 14 years at PwC (PricewaterhouseCoopers) where he reached a Director position. From 2002 till 2011, he was working in the Insurance Group in PwC Paris where he specialized in the audit and consulting of insurance and reinsurance.

His work spanned across a range of organizations including French and European insurance and reinsurance companies. Mohamad joined PwC Middle East in 2011, where he was engaged in delivering business assurance services to local and international clients mainly in insurance, reinsurance and Financial Services sector.

Apart from the above, he has been involved in due diligence assignments and projects for the Ministry of Economy and Trade in Lebanon - Insurance Control Commission - relating to insurance. Mohamed is also an instructor at Saint Joseph University since 2011, where he teaches Insurance Accounting and Financial Analysis courses.